

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS,

the week of February 10 to February 14, 1997 has been designated as School-to-Careers Week; and this is a School-to-Career system that focuses on the student. The student will have gained academic and work skills that are preparation for the 21st century. The skills will be gained through an academic and career infused integrated curriculum. We want the student to graduate from our schools with motivation to continue to learn throughout their life. We want the student to be equipped with tools to make informed life choices; and the Business/Education Partnership in cooperation with participating businesses in the communities offer all students the opportunity to gain employability skills through classroom education, leadership development, projects, shadows, mentors, apprenticeships, internships, co-operative programs; and the future of the Town, State and Nation depend upon the growth and development of our youth who will one day become our business leaders.

WHEREAS,

WHEREAS,

WHEREAS,

NOW, THEREFORE,

I, Richard Strachan, Mayor of the Town of Berthoud, Colorado, do hereby proclaim the week of February 10 through February 14, 1997, as

SCHOOL-TO-CAREERS WEEK

and strongly urge business, industry, education, government, and citizens of the community to lend their interests, assistance, and encouragement to the students participating in the program.

Signed this 11th day of February, 1997

Mayor, Richard Strachan
