Footnotes: <sup>1</sup> Use this worksheet only as a guide. For the purposes of determining building permit fees, valuation means the actual dollar cost to complete construction of the home including labor, materials, fixed equipment, profit, fees, marketing costs etc. The value of the land or lot should not be included in the valuation. Building permit applicants are required to include the actual project valuation on the building permit application. In the event the applicant's valuation is less than what would be derived using this worksheet, the Town will audit the project to ensure an accurate and complete valuation has been provided.

<sup>2</sup> Please refer to Table 1-A from the 1997 Uniform Building Code® for building permit fee information or use the following formula.
